

9 reasons

Greentrees Printer Supply

outperforms

1. Specialist

Expenditures for technology office supplies have now surpassed traditional office supplies. Specializing in technology supplies allows us to outperform the giant suppliers who try to be everything to everyone.

2. More Selection

Greentrees has an in-depth selection of printer, multifunction, copier and fax supplies often not available from general office supplies sources. All 5,000 items from 70 national brands are ready for immediate shipping.

3. Product Options

By educating our customers on product options, Greentrees helps buyers save up to 50 percent, or even more. Our will assist in choosing the best supply value for your specific application and budget.

4. Discount Pricing

The mega-suppliers have huge operating costs. Our specialized product line moves three times faster, allowing us to pass along lower costs and frequent manufacturer price reductions to you more quickly.

5. Personal Service

Our experienced representatives take pride in providing traditional personal service. You will enjoy the continuity of working with the same person every day—a person who knows you and your account.

6. Expert Reps

Because we specialize in printer supplies, we are product experts. We give you the quick and correct answers you need for your changing equipment needs!

7. Quick Delivery

Our distribution centers stocks the complete product line for 3-5 delivery. Greentrees has delivery capabilities across the U.S. for regional and national accounts.

8. Accuracy

Fulfillment accuracy, measured at 99.8 percent, is unsurpassed in the industry. We never substitute products without prior authorization.

9. Internet

Greentrees offers easy online ordering, shipping status and more.
